Dear Professor Dalla:

I'm very pleased to extend an invitation to you, as well as to your colleagues and students from the law school of the University Estácio de Sá, to participate in the colloquium that we are organizing in Puerto Rico and in the University of Connecticut from January 13 to 25, 2010. We have put together the following schedule.

- January 13: Welcome and Informal Get-Together (Old San Juan)
- January 14: The Inter-American Human Rights Systems (Inter-American University Law School)
- January 15: Leading Cases of the U.S. Supreme Court and of the Brazilian Supreme Court on Human Rights (University of Puerto Rico Law School)
- January 18: Travel from San Juan (PR) to Hartford (CT)
- January 19: Trip to Harvard Law School
- January 20: Stare Decisis in the Common Law and Its Influence in Brazil (University of Connecticut School of Law)
- January 21: U.S. Class Actions and Brazil's Proposed Public Civil Action Law (University of Connecticut School of Law)
- January 21: Trip to Yale Law School and New York

If you need any further information or assistance, please let me know. I'm looking forward to this wonderful event.
